C frame series

NE-NE ISO 9001 2008

C frame systems are the modern lab furniture architecture. Based on a cantilevered design, C-frame systems do not need plinth for support.

Flexis C-Frame systems are highly flexible and adaptable to changing demands of the lab. They are relatively easy to shift and allow for easy portability of the under-bench cabinets. Flexis also offers you a high load bearing capacity. Additionally, they also offer you easy access to the rear ducts, so that utility & drain line maintenance is simple and stress free.

The Flexis range has C-frame systems for both standing and sitting height.

Available options:

- Flexis
- Flexi-mobile (on castors)
